

Our concept

The KMA offers a straightforward format of instrumental and voice lessons. With additional key elements as chamber music, individual and group lessons and concerts. Before one fully reveals practical music skills we highly recommend to undertake music theory lessons. Our concept is based on an idea that understanding brings more accuracy in future performances. By teaching students through empathy, sense of responsibility, adaptability, honesty and genuine idea sharing we at KMA nurture healthy young individuals ready to conquer music stages and face the life.

Detail is the key! The KMA staff understands. We try to adapt to everyone's needs! Even one coaching can change significantly the perspective, enrich the experience and help to find the path to greater potential.

Lessons

The KMA brings a variety into a mundane teaching by offering edited, topic-based videos for everyday check. Which can inspire and clarify current studies. Online lessons via majority of social media apps is also available! Did someone missed the class? The KMA staff is flexible, ready to reschedule. We even offer a selection of lessons on monthly, weekly or ticket based basis. Moreover, every new student have a first thirty minute lesson free so we can see if the both student and teacher can get along together!

Concerts and performances

Our students have chance to perform every time and anytime! We usually held concert venues with full scale recitals three times per year smaller concerts are every month. KMA provides accompaniment and all the necessary guidance according to every player personal needs for the most enjoyable experiences possible.
